Preface

Children are great wonders. There is no end to the thinking about their world of wonder. They are a subject of contemplation for educationists, scientists, philosophers, child specialists and psychologists. The fundamental principles of child education outlined in the National Education Policy 2010 have been defined in the light of these contemplations. The curriculum for primary education has been revised to develop a child on the potentials of their innate amazement, unbounded curiosity, endless joy and enthusiasm keeping in view the all-round development of children's potentials. The aims and objectives of primary education were modified in the revised curriculum of 2011.

The necessity of learning religion and moral education is becoming wider everyday. It is utmost necessary at primary level. Because, at this age, a child's religious and moral base is strongly developed. Keeping this in mind, the section of Moral Teachings has been added in the Christian Religion and Moral Education Book. The textbook has been developed strongly focusing on Christian Religion and morality so that our students can learn the difference between good and evil doing, avoid the evil and accept the good, build up themselves as a person of character and strong personality. They will also be able to know and love God, the creations of God and nature according to their own characteristics.

To make the young learners interested, enthusiastic and dedicated, Honorable Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina instructed to change the textbooks into four colours, to make them interesting, sustainable and to distribute free of cost since 2009. The textbooks of all students of Pre-primary, Primary, Secondary, Ibtedai, Dakhil, Dakhil Vocational and S.S.C Vocational levels are being distributed free of cost across the country which is a historical initiative of the present government.

My sincere acknowledgement and thanks to all who helped in different stages of composition, editing, rational evaluation, printing and publication of the textbook. Though all cares have been taken by those concerned, the book may contain some errors/lapses. Therefore, any constructive and rational suggestions will be highly appreciated for further improvement and enrichment of the book. We will deem all our efforts successful if the young learners for whom it is intended find it useful to them.

Chapter One

BODY, MIND AND SOUL OF HUMAN BEING

God has created man with body, mind and soul. A man is the combination of body, mind and soul. Because of these three, we have our normal existence. We will be sick if any of these remain absent or lacks. All these three are continuously being active in us. But we cannot alert in that case all the time. We are going to discuss about our body, mind and soul in this chapter and we would like to show respect to all these three elements. We will praise our God for His gift.

The Body, Mind and Soul of Human being

We have our body, mind and soul. We can touch our body. But we cannot see or touch our mind and soul. Our body is mortal, once it will die and destroy. But our Soul is immortal. It will never destroy. Our soul will go to heaven at the time of our death. Then God will take the decision whether our soul stay at heaven or will go to hell. It is really a matter of

Various parts of Mango surprise that it is a precious gift in our mortal body is the immortal soul. To show the relationship/unity of our body, mind and soul, we can compare ourselves with different fruits including mango, litchi etc.

Fruits	Human being
1. Fruits have their skin, flesh and seeds.	1. Human beings have body, mind & Soul.
2. The function of skin, flesh and seeds are different.	2. The function of body, mind and soul are different.
3. A fruit is not complete without skin, flesh and seeds.	3. A man cannot be a complete man if all three do not remain together.
4. A fruit will destroy if any of the elements is separated.	4. Human being cannot live normally if body, mind and soul are separated from each other.
5. The Fruits receive life from the trees. The fruits will destroy if separated from trees.	5. Man is remaining connected with God. Man cannot live without the help of God.
6. The success/ fullness of the fruits ensured if it can sacrifice itself totally.	6. The fullness of human being only comes if he/she can sacrifice his or her life for the service of mankind.

The above mentioned example is given only to show the relationship of our body, mind and soul. But it does not mean that human being is fully like a fruit. Actually human being is the best among the whole creation. The reason is: human beings have intelligence. Without intelligence human being would be like a thing. Because of this intelligence man is different for any other animal. The other animals have a little bit of intelligence. But they do not know that they have some intelligence. The human being knows that it has intelligence. For this reason human being is the best among the creation.

The human being is not only the best among the animals but human being is the best among all the creation. The reason is, God Himself has given the dignity to human being and place on the top of everything.

Human being can perform miracle with the help of God

He has placed the immortal soul in the human being. Human being can perform miracle with the help of God. The human being with its body, mind and soul can do many things including eating, giving birth, caring of children etc. Such as:

1. Human being can perform development activities, can play nice games, and can show mercy to others by using body. He/she can develop something new and at the same time he/she can also destroy.
2. Man can think, study, plan and counsel other by using mind. He/she can invent something new by using mind. He can think good and also can think evil. He can believe and also deny by using reasons.
3. With the power of soul human being can feel the presence of God, can pray and can be holy.

We have to remember that whatever human being performs, body, mind and soul are present there. Man can do nothing alone. He performs everything with the power of God.

God sees and leads everything

God remains present everywhere at the same time. At this moment He remains within me and at the same time. He remains present in the lives of the other humans elsewhere of the world. He knows and sees everything. He knows everything that happened from the beginning. Whatever we think, talk or imagine he knows everything. Even we do something in dark, He knows that also. He knows everything of our body, mind and soul. Nothing can be hidden from Him. If I hide something under the ground, no one may know that but God will certainly know that. We may deceive man but not Him.

God has spoken through Jeremiah, "Am I a God only of present? Not for future? Am I not seeing if any one hides himself in a hidden place? Am I not present in earth and haven?" (jer. 23:23-24)

God is almighty and honourable

'God is almighty means,' He can do everything with His own power. There is nothing impossible to Him. God has created everything that we see with our eyes around us. He is so powerful that He has created everything by only His word. We know that Jesus became human but at the same time He is also remains as God. How He became human though He is God, the almighty. He had done so many miracles. He has risen from the death. All these are expression of His mightiness. There is nothing impossible for God.

Respecting and honouring God

God has created everything for His glory. For this reason every creation adores and praises Him. We the human beings are the best among the whole creation. So we have to adore, respect and praise Him for all His activates. This is our moral obligation. We can show our respect to God in the following ways:

1. Showing respect to God by showing love and respect to His best creation – human beings. We can show our love and respect to God by loving and forgiving our enemies.
2. We can show love and respect to God by taking care of His creation.
3. We can show our love and respect to God by showing obedience to our parents and elders. Obedience is the expression of respect.
4. We can show love and respect to God by taking care of the poor and needy because Jesus lives among them.
5. We can show love and respect to God by following Jesus - His only son. God has given him as an example for us.
6. We can show love and respect to God by praying and observing different religious activities.
7. We can show love and respect to God by leading our lives in the path of holiness. We can prove ourselves as the children of God if we live in holiness.

What we have learned

God is almighty and great. He sees and leads everything. We must show honour and respect to Him. Because, he has created our body, mind and soul.

Chapter Two

GOD

There is a beginning and an ending to human beings and all other creations - a birth and a death. But God neither has any beginning nor any ending. He has always been, He is and He will remain forever. Before our birth as human beings, we did not exist; now we do exist, in the future, our soul will remain, but our bodies will perish. This is a mystery. We, as creation of a God, who has no beginning and who is eternal and infinite, cannot understand this mystery. We cannot fathom the depth of this mystery. That is why we revere and respect Him and worship Him. We praise Him for all His creation and for all His works.

Holy Bible on the Eternality and Infinity of God

God is eternal and infinite. He has always been, He is, and He will be forever. Infinity is in other words eternal. This eternal and infinite God has created us so that we can be one with Him. We can all be one with Him by receiving this eternal life if we listen to the words of Jesus and live by them, because God the Father has sent His Son to us. If we listen to the words of Jesus, we also listen to words of God. Jesus also says, "If we receive the body and blood of Christ with utmost faith, we can gain eternal life." Meaning of receiving Jesus' body and blood is to obey His commands. If we are obedient to Jesus, He will resurrect us on the Last Day. For, He Himself has resurrected. By resurrection, we can be one with God. Since we have believed in Jesus, even if our bodies die, we will resurrect like Jesus on the Last Day.

I am the bread of life

St. Paul says, "We have become God's children by being freed from the bondage of sin. We have been made holy. He does not want us to be slaves of sin again. If we lead a holy life, we can gain eternal life, that is, we can be united with eternal and infinite God. We always need to remember that sin causes our death, but living in the path of Jesus, gives us eternal life."

Eternal and Infinite God

Virtues of eternal and infinite God are invisible. But we can understand them through His creation. St. Paul says, "For the invisible things of Him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made" (Rom 1: 20). "He is before all things, and in him all things hold together" (Col 1: 17).

From the above words, we have learned about eternal life according to the Bible. That eternal life is God Himself. Moses asked for God's name at the burning bush. He told Moses, "I Am Who I Am. Say this to the people of Israel: I Am has sent me to you" (Exodus 3: 14). By saying 'I am', God tells us that He is always present. He was as in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. He is eternal, infinite.

God is Always Present Everywhere

In the Psalms of David we can understand God's being present everywhere at all times. He wrote:

"Where can I go from your Spirit?
Where can I flee from your presence?
If I go up to the heavens, you are there;
 if I make my bed in the depths, you are there.
If I rise on the wings of the dawn,
 if I settle on the far side of the sea,
even there your hand will guide me,
 your right hand will hold me fast. (Psalm 139: 7-10)

In the book of Proverbs, we come to know that God always keeps His eyes on all: "The eyes of the Lord are everywhere, keeping watch on the wicked and the good" (Proverbs 15: 3). God enters into men's hearts through His words: "For the word of God is alive and active. Sharper than any double-edged sword, it penetrates even to dividing soul and spirit, joints and marrow; it judges the thoughts and attitudes of the heart" (Hebrew 4: 12).

Ways to be united with God

Once, a small fish asked a big fish, “where is the ocean?” The big fish replied, “It is here. You are swimming in it.” The small fish says, “This is only water. I do not see any ocean here.” It is the same with us. We are in God. We cannot escape from Him. Yet, we are eager to see Him. How can we be united with God? In order to be aware of God’s presence in our midst, we can take the following steps:

- 1) Keep our interest awake of being with Him.
- 2) Keep on trying to see God through Jesus.
- 3) Read Psalm 139 slowly and prayerfully.
- 4) Participate in personal and family prayers.
- 5) In order to turn away from sinful ways and to make our hearts holy, take help of the sacraments.
- 6) Take part regularly in the liturgy and be attentive to it so that you can feel His presence.
- 7) Read certain parts of the Holy Bible everyday with reverence and prayerfulness. Because Bible is the word of God. To read his words is to listen to Him. To listen to God is to be with Him.
- 8) Do some works of mercy everyday for the poor and needy.
Because Jesus said He is present among the poorest of the poor.
- 9) Listen respectfully to the advice of the spiritual guides.

Chapter Three

HOLY TRINITY OF GOD

We are taught about the Holy Trinity of God in every year in every class. If we search whole over the life, we can not understand about the mystery of Holy Trinity. Because, this is a very mysterious thing. Let us try to reflect with the known things of our life. Now, we will know that a combination of three persons are the Holy Trinity of God. In spite of that they are equal and have close unity. Trinity gives equal emphasis to each other, subsequently; we can give the dignity and emphasis to other like Trinity of God.

Equal person in Holy Trinity

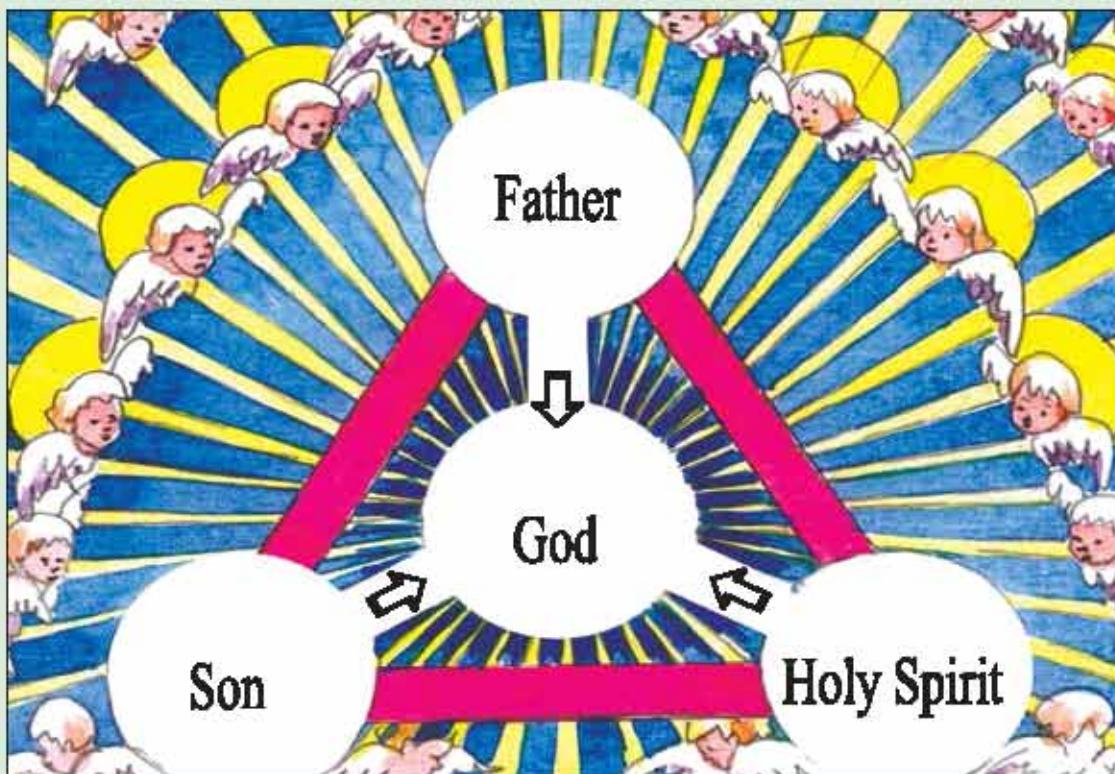

We learnt in the first chapter about the human body, mind and soul. We compared our body, mind and soul in the first chapter regarding the result of unity. We would like to remember that example here. We have seen that mango, Litchi and such kind of fruits have the shell, skin and seed. Characteristic of these are separate. But total of these are a fruit. We can use same example regarding the Holy Trinity of God. Summing up of three things is one fruit. Simultaneously, combination of Father, Son and Holy Spirit are one God. Here, we can cite another example which we mentioned earlier. That is water. We know water has three form i.e. normal water, ice and vapour. So, vapour, ice and normal water are form as same but these are water. Same thing is happened regarding Trinity of God. They are separate person but they are one God and three are equal.

Unity in three persons

We have discussed and sighted family regarding Trinity earlier. Father, mother and children are formed a family. Many families have good relationship with the father, mother and children. They make plan and implementation the work together and sharing the experience to each other. Sort of families are good and have unity. So they are happy family.

If there is no sharing or understanding among the family, those families could not be happy.

Holy trinity is the best example before us. Because, they have the greatest unity between Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Trinity respects each other equally. No one hamper others work but having cooperation each other's work. Because, what Father does Son and Holy Spirit are known. What Son does simultaneously Father and Holy Spirit are known and what Holy Spirit does, Father and Son are known. They do it because they love and give dignity each other. That's why Holy Trinity has existence till to-date.

Holy Trinity of God

Giving dignity and importance each other

If we want to be happy then we need to learn from Holy Trinity. We should respect each other like Holy Trinity. Cited some greatest people's name below for our learning:

- a) Mohatma Gandhi: He had been leading a movement for the independence of the country, but he kept the dignity of others. So, he started a non violence movement. We can follow the principle of Gandhi's movement for gaining our rights.
- b) Martin Luther King (Jounior): There was discrimination between black and white in United States. Long time, black people worked there as slave. To get rid of this situation Martin Luther king followed non violence principles. He had a great speech where he mentioned, "I have a dream and finally United States got the peace and unity."
- c) Nelson Mandela: Long time, there was conflict in South Africa. Nelson Mandela brought all people together and gave them their dignity and importance and started ruling country. By the leadership of him, established the peace and unity.

We can give importance and respect to our family members as under:

1. Never read and open letter of others without permission;
2. Make good behaviour with the house servant and labour;
3. We will switch off the television or keep away our work when guest comes to our home and talk to them ;
4. Without the permission we will not touch other things;
5. After using the toilet and basin, we will keep cleaning for others using;
6. Do not mention the other's error in-front of the people;
7. Do not take more good food for yourself but keep those for others too;
8. Keep informed the authority if you broken any thing;
9. Wash your own plate or glass after taking meal and help elderly people;
10. After taking bath keep your towels in proper place;
11. Obey to your parents and others;
12. Do not criticize to illiterate parents but respect them;
13. Say sorry, if you get touch with the others;

If you could act this song with dance:

Jagadakaranama, Jagtaranama, Jagadaprananama Tribattite Ek Bhagabana...

Chapter Four

CAIN AND ABEL

From the beginning of the creation, it was found that human had the hatred in their mind. Because of jealous and independent wishes the human being did unforgettable sin. But Almighty God who's existence is every where in this world, the human could not escape in the eye of God from their detestable offences. The human has done offence of their own self, so they have to be punished. Understanding the above subject, we will try to abandonment of hatred. We could be happy in our life and could make our society happy if we can avoid the above.

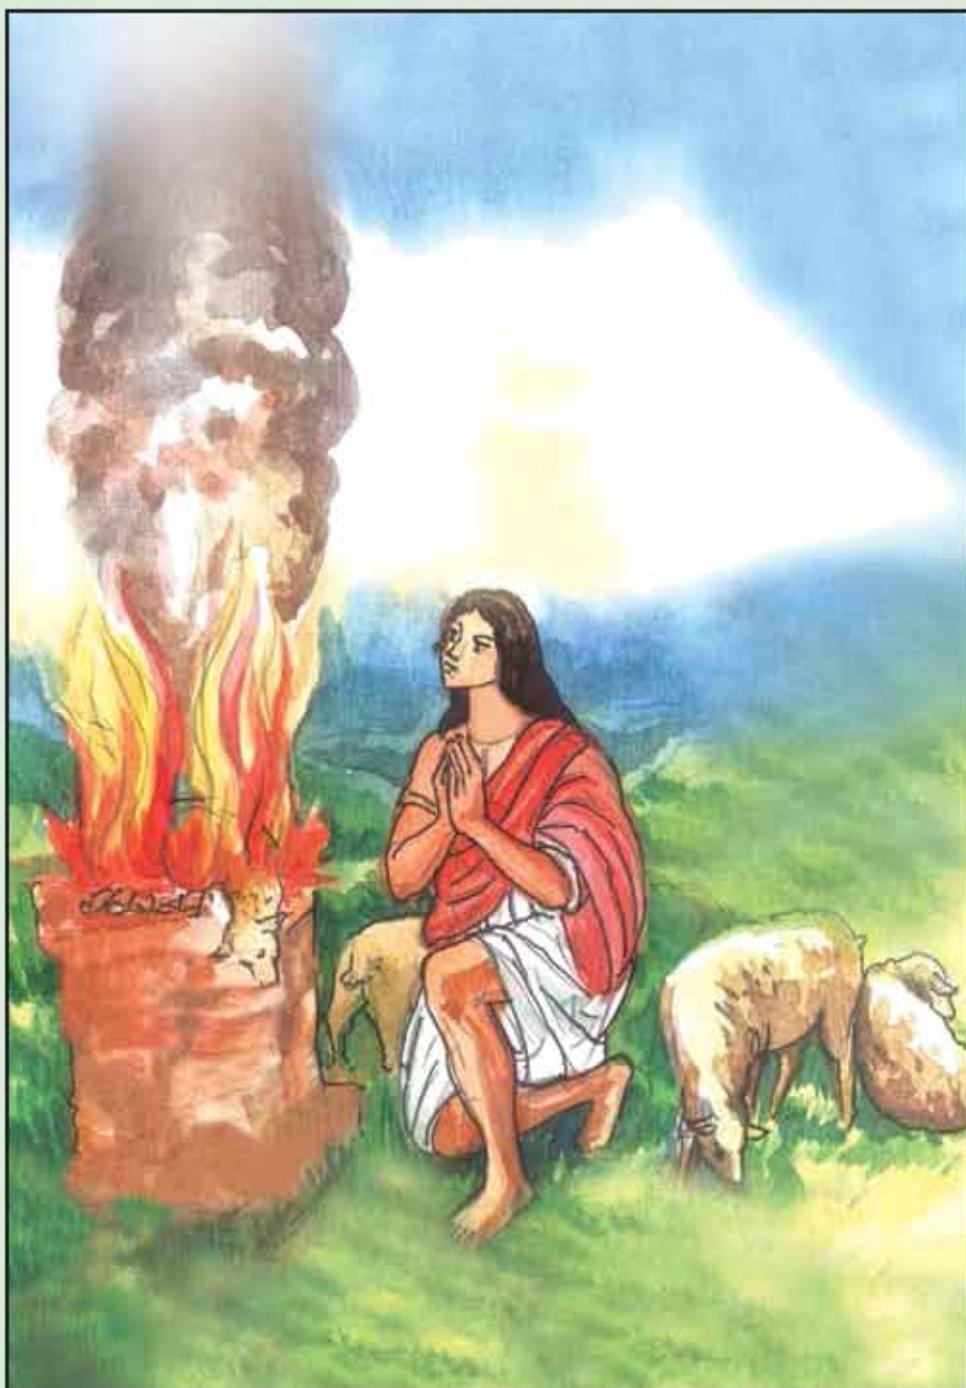

Cain (Coin) and Abel (Hebel)

The Lord God sent Adam and Eve out of the Garden of Eden and passing hard life in the world both of them. They gave birth two sons. The first one is Cain (coin) and the second is Abel (Hebel). They became adult slowly. Then they are acquainted of hard laobour like their father. Abel became shepherd, but Cain was a farmer. The mentality of Cain and Abel were not the same. Cain was hard mentality and Abel was soft and kind.

Offering of Cain and Abel

After some time, Cain brought some of his harvest and gave it as an offering to the Lord. Then Abel brought the first Lamb of his sheep, killed it, and gave the best parts of it as an offering. The Lord was pleased with Abel and his offering. But He rejected Cain and his offering. Cain became furious, he scowled in anger. Then the Lord said, Cain, "why are you angry? Why that scowl on your face? If you had done right thing, you would be smiling but you have done evil, sin is crouching at your door. It wants to rule you, but you must over come it." (Genesis 4:6 - 7) we can easily understand from the conversation of the above that why the Lord God has pleased with the offering of Abel. Materials are not required by the Lord but He wants to see our attitude towards God. Offering of Abel was good. So, God has accepted the offering of him.

Abel stood before God smiling and Cain became inferior in front of God.

Offering of Abel

Cain killed his brother Abel

Cain did not listen to God's advice and he maintained his life as his own decision. He took decision that he will kill his brother Abel. Then Cain said to his brother Abel, "Let's go out in the fields." When they were out in the fields, Cain turned on his brother and killed him. Then Lord asked Cain, "Where is your brother Abel?" He answered, "I do not know. Am I supposed to take care of my brother?" We know that The Lord knows every thing and watches us. He knows the secrete thinking of human being. What was in the Cain's mind God would know? Cain thought that he would kill his brother secretly no one would know it. So he did not kill his brother at home but killed in the field. But Cain could not hide his sin in front of God.

Offering of Cain

Effects of Offence

God had seen Cain's offence. The Lord said, " Why have you done this terrible thing? Your brother's blood is crying out to me from the ground, like a voice calling for revenge. You are placed under a curse and can no longer farm the soil. It has soaked up your brother's blood as if it had opened its mouth to receive it, when you killed him. If you try to grow crops, the soil will not produce anything; you will be a homeless wanderer on the earth." (Genesis 4: 12)

And Cain said to the Lord, " This punishment is too hard for me to bear. You are driving me off the land and away from your presence. I will be homeless wanderer on the earth, and anyone who finds me will kill me." But the Lord answered, " No, if anyone kills you, seven lives will be taken in revenge." So the Lord put a mark on Cain to warn anyone who met him not to kill him. And Cain went away from the Lord's presence and lived in a land called ' Wandering' which is east of Eden.

Distinguish the attitude of Cain and Abel

Cain and Abel were the Adam and Eve's Children but we found that there are some attitudinal differences. These are as under.

Cain's Mentality and Attitude	Abel's Mentality and Attitude
Selfish	Kind
Ungrateful to God	Always grateful to God
Angry and proud	Kind and gentle
Jealous mentality	Simplicity
Offering not good crops	Offering the best lamb
Superiority complex	Emphasis others
Angry and dishonour to God	Love and respect to God
Parsimonious and dishonest	Generous and honest

How to keep away our-self from jealousy

We can keep away our-self from jealousy as under:

- 1) Do not think hatred but think positively and think lovable matters for others. What we think in our mind that reflects outside.
- 2) Forgive others like Jesus Christ.
- 3) Love enemies and friends.
- 4) Try to do good thing for others.
- 5) Grateful to God for His abundant mercy and gift.
- 6) Wishing congratulation for others success and joyous matter.
- 7) Practise politeness.

Let us sing a song

Make me a channel of your peace
 Where there is hatred, let me bring your love.
 Where there is injury, your pardon, Lord.
 And where there's doubt, true faith in you
 Make me a channel of your peace.
 Where there's despair in life, let me bring hope.
 Where there is darkness only light,
 And where there's sadness ever joy.
 Oh, Master, grant that I may never seek
 So much to be consoled as to console.
 To be understood as to understand.
 To be Loved, as to Love, with all my soul.

What we have learned

Everything is known by the God. God has watched the secret offence of Cain. God wants that we love and respect to each other.

Planned Work

1. Prepare a list, what kind of good works can you do for your brothers and sisters and class friends.

PROPHET

In the history of Holy Bible, the prophets are kept important role. God called them to convey the message of Him to his own nation and show the perfect way of God. As a Christian, everyone we got the prophetic role through our baptism. That's why we need to know, who is a good prophet, what is the characteristic of a prophet and what is the role of a prophet. After knowing of these we will try to become a modern prophet.

Prophet

At first we need to have clear idea about a prophet.

- a) He who reflects the word of God's profoundly and invents the meaning of the word of God;
- b) Understand the will of God;
- c) Could know the future plan of God
- d) In the name of God, proclaim the good news without fear.

Prophet could be chief/ principal or inferior. Principal or inferior prophet does not mean that one is important and other is not important. Some prophet books have many prophecy and others have little less. So which prophet have written more word of God those are called principal prophet and which prophet has written little less word of God these are called inferior prophet. Principal or inferior prophet is not the main factor, it is true that these word of God has given by the God and they have written these by the encouragement of God.

Characteristic of Prophet

Prophets are started their journey through meeting with the God. Through the nearness of God, he can invent himself and be able to understand the kindness of God. In this process, he knows himself and God and easily he can express the God to the people. Prophet's perception of God, they use the example or poem language for easy understanding to the people.

These can be done by the inspiration of God. The prophet can not stay without proclaiming the word of God because God has chosen them. They are not afraid to proclaim the word of God in front of the king and others. Even they taking risk of their life for proclamation of word of God. What so ever situation is!

The prophet will proclaim the truth without fear. They are sacrificed their life for the justice and love. Because, God is love and justice. So on behalf of God, they stand for the poor, oppressed and helpless people. Without establishment of justice, they continue fighting. Prophet proclaims the presence of God in the history of human being. He believes that by the blessing of God mankind can do the well-being in the earth. Besides, prophets animate the people to change their mind.

Prophet pointed out the Israel and other nation's offences and proclaims punishment of God. On the other hand, he proclaims the news of savior. He said that savior who will weep up the tear of eyes and keeping away the sorrow of dearest. Such way, he brings the salvation, happiness of God and new hope for the frustrated heart.

Prophet's name

There are 16 prophets name mentioned in the Holy Bible. Among them four are major and rest of them are junior. Principal prophets are : 1) Isaiah, 2) Jeremiah, 3) Ezekel and 4) Daniel.

Rest of them are: 5) Obadiah, 6) Micah, 7) Nahum, 8) Habakkuk, 9) Zephaniah, 10) Haggai, 11) Zechariah, and 12) Malachi.

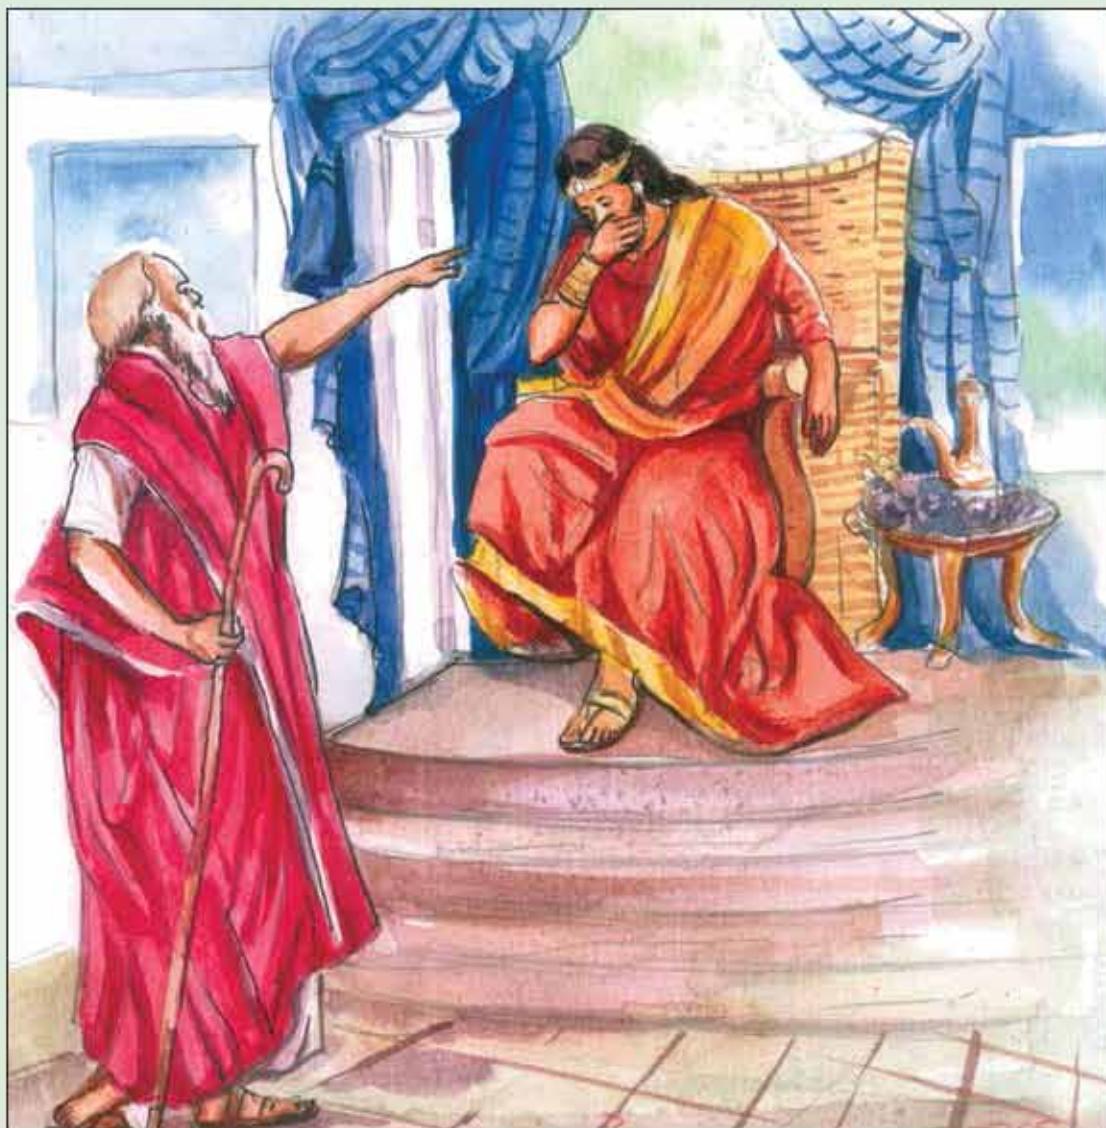

Moreover, we found the prophets name in the history of Israel like: Moses, Samuel, Nathan, Alioy and Alisiah and John Baptist etc.

Prophet Nathan

Like other Prophet Nathan was a messenger of God. By the instruction of God, he criticized the king David for his sin. Criticism of Nathan, king David had come back from his sin. Now we will read that part.

One day the king David went to the roof and walking in the evening, at that time he watched a beautiful woman was taking bath. The king David wanted to know who is she? And got to know that she is a wife of Oriah (one of his soldier), named Bathseba. That time Oriah was in the battle field. Using the opportunity, the king David brought Bathseba to his palace.

King David and Prophet Nathan

After few days, that women has got to pregnant. Then the king David wrote a letter to his chief soldier named Joyaber. He wrote that you keep Oriah in the front line of the battle field. Then you keep away from the battle field. So that Oriah could be died. Joyaber carried out the order of the king.

When Bathseba got to know that his husband died in the battle field, she has got to cry. Overcoming the shocked of her husband, the king got married her and she gave birth of a son.

The Lord God became very angry to the king for his offence. God sent prophet of Nathan to the king. He came to David and told, there were two persons lived in a country. Between them one was rich and other was poor. Rich man had a huge number of sheep and cows. But the poor had nothing except a small sheep which was fostered and rearing by him. The sheep was fostered like his children. The sheep took his food from owner plate and slept in the arm of the poor. The sheep was liked his daughter. One day, a guest has come to the rich. The rich person did not like to give any of his sheep or cow to prepare food for the guest. Then the rich person snatched the sheep from the poor and prepared food for the guest.

Listening the story, the king became angry and said to Nathan, "I oath in the name of God that who did this against the poor, the capital punishment is the right punishment."

He should not get any compassion from the poor, so the rich has to pay the four times price of the sheep. Nathan answered the king, "But you are like that person." Then the king said to Nathan, "Really I made offence against God. In reply Nathan said, ok God has mercy you, so you will not get capital punishment. But, what you have done, it is a great negligence to God, due to your sin which son is given birth by Bathseba, that son has to die." Then Nathan went away to his own house.

Within a few days the son became heavy sick and the king prayed to God from his heart and kept fasting. The son died within seven days. Through this punishment the king has got rid off his sin and changed his mind and came back to God.

Role of prophet

We can play the prophetic role in this modern era as under:

- 1) As a Christian where ever you get chance, you can proclaim the word of God;
- 2) Always speak the truth and lead the honest life;
- 3) Following the Jesus Christ values and witness regarding the Christ;
- 4) Protest the unethical condition and keeping active role to establish the just society;

Chapter Six

EXPLANATION OF TEN COMMANDMENTS

Ten Commandments of God are expressions of His love. These can be divided into two parts. The first three (four according to the Protestant Churches) are about His love for human beings. The latter seven (six according to the Protestant Churches) are about humans love for humans. Let us discuss elaborately about these commandments.

Honor your Father and Mother

God gave us life through our father and mother and sent us into this world. Both our father and mother, through their hard work, have nurtured and protected us. They have helped us grow with their love and provided all our needs. It is very important for us to give due respect to them. It is our sacred duty to obey them, take care of them and respect them. It is not only to obey God's command rather it is our moral and human obligation to revere them. Our childlike duties are:

- 1) Love your father and mother.
- 2) Be grateful to them.
- 3) Obey them.
- 4) Provide them with moral and material support in their old age, during sickness and at bad times.

You shall not Murder

God is the giver of life. He is also the owner of this life. Nobody has the right to take another person's life. In the fifth commandment God said: "You shall not murder; he who murders, shall be brought to judgment." With this commandment, lives of human persons have been shown due respect. By obeying this commandment, we save our lives by saving lives of others; by showing respect to others, we respect our own lives.

Jesus said, "Killing a person is not a sin alone, one cannot even be angry with another person. For with our sins we destroy our relationship with other persons." For this reason, there are two sides of this commandment. The first is a prohibition by which it is said not to kill another person. The second is a directive. One is directed to be in relationship with others through love, peace and friendship.

You shall not commit Adultery

The meaning of adultery is to look at a man or a woman with lust. God has given us the desire to love and the power to conjugate/reproduce. We should use this appropriately. We need to show respect to any man or woman. With this commandment, we have been restricted to think impurely and act inappropriately, which may defile our body and mind. In the words of St. Gregory, many people do not know how to respect others, but comes to senses after having committed adultery like an irrational animal. For that reason, they need to be far away from these evil thoughts. Idleness, gluttonous, sensual, inapt dresses, uncontrolled language, watching pornographic films, reading of erotic books, indecent thinking and bad habits, can cause one to be adulterous. By relinquishing these, we have to purify and make holy our sights, thoughts, words and actions. Going for frequent confessions, receiving communion, praying regularly, and giving alms can help us remain holy. Holiness is a gift of God. Those who seek it, get it.

You shall not Steal

Stealing is to take away or claiming to be one's own or forcibly possess other peoples' materials or wealth. Not only that, cheating in exams, tarnishing someone's name, help others steal, cheating a buyer, taking something from a shop without paying for it, not returning a lost item, not paying for tickets in traveling, destroying or wasting other peoples' property, not paying just wages to laborers, staining one's respect, etc. are all various ways of stealing. We have to be respectful to propriety and wealth of others. Returning stolen materials can bring mental peace to the thief.

You shall not Bear False Witness against Your Neighbor

With this commandment, God is prohibiting us to tell lies. Tarnishing one's good name by spreading scandal against him/her, willingly paying attention to these scandals, dispersing it to others, flattering, treachery, etc. can cause us to be liars. Because by lying, we become friends of devils, we smear our own good names. The devil also did the same thing with Eve in the Eden garden. We destroy our society by falsehood because it deteriorates our relationship. Being truthful in our words and actions is honesty or sincerity. Living a truthful life is to be in union with God, living with our neighbors according to our words and actions.

You shall not covet your Neighbor's Wife

In the explanation of not committing adultery we have come to know that in marriage a man and a woman acquire the respect of being a husband and a wife. Each of them has certain rights over the other.

Nobody else can take these rights away. That is why when someone looks at another person's wife or husband with lust, he/she commits sin. This kind of behavior can ruin a family and their sacred relationship through marriage is smeared. For example, King David by coveting the wife of Uriah, committed a sin. He further sinned by marrying her. God punished him for this act.

You shall not covet your Neighbor's Goods

Through this commandment one is prohibited to be greedy over other peoples' goods. Greed is to acquire or desire strongly what I do not have or possess. Due to greed one desires to acquire more than one's needs. For this reason, many times we act unjustly. For example, we should not desire to have other peoples' money, toys, books, pens, mobile phones or clothes. By being greedy, some people can acquire other peoples' goods and become rich, while others become poor. This causes imbalance between the rich and the poor. Greed can also make people very cruel and violent for which he/she can even kill somebody. That is why the wise persons set a limit to their wants - decides not to have more than what they need. We can also set that kind of limit so that our greed can be controlled.

Good fruits of obeying the Ten Commandments

Earlier we have learnt that the Ten Commandments are rules of love. By obeying these commandments we can live a happy and holy life. They will help us maintain good relationship with God and our neighbors. People will live in peace and happiness. We will enjoy the happiness of heaven. The Kingdom of God will be established on this earth. Otherwise, our life will be sinful. We will be unhappy and without any peace. This earth will be like hell for us. Thus, it is our duty to obey these commandments.

What we have learnt

We have learnt the importance of honoring our parents, not to kill, not to commit adultery, not to steal, not to bear false witness, not to covet neighbor's wife/husband, and not to covet other peoples' goods.

Chapter Seven

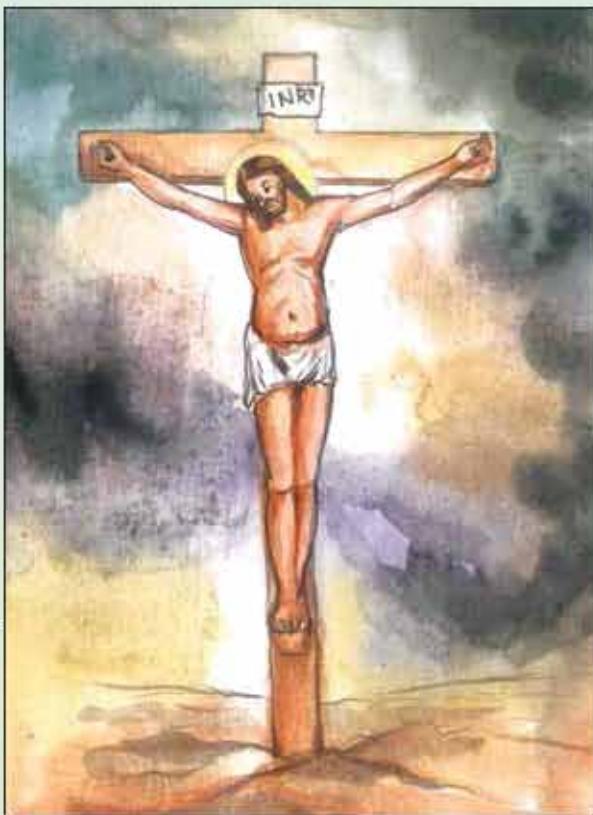

SALVATION

All people want freedom. Israelites wanted freedom from the slavery of the Egyptians, and they received it. God promised to send the redeemer to save mankind from the slavery of sin. People were waiting for this redeemer for a long time. Finally the redeemer came, but not all recognized and accepted him. We discovered that redeemer. But we need to understand better the meaning of freedom or salvation, its consequences and significance.

Meaning of freedom or salvation

Freedom or salvation usually means deliverance from a certain danger or an adverse situation. It means being safe from a destructive and risky situation. In the life of Christian faith, freedom or salvation means being freed from slavery of sin and receiving the opportunity to go to heaven.

Due to the original sin of our forefathers, our entrance into heaven had been shut down forever. That is why God had promised to send a redeemer for us. In the Old Testament we see that Moses was sent to deliver the Israelites from the slavery of the Egyptians. In the New Testament we see the end of the waiting days of mankind when the redeemer came into this world. He came and offered his life as ransom for our salvation. He brought us out of the prison of sinfulness.

Cross is the Salvation

Effects of redemption

Now we shall see what the fruit of redemption is. In the life of faith every human person wants freedom. With the original sin of Adam and Eve, mankind was tainted by sin; they want to free themselves from that defilement, they want to be purified by God's grace. The time of mending man's relationship with God is called the history of redemption. By being united with God we move ahead towards redemption. When we received Jesus as our saviour, our life and heart begin to change. This change can be experienced in this world, in our lives and in heaven also.

The effects that we receive by gaining redemption are as follows:

1. The heaven rejoices at our redemption. "I say to you that like-wise there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine just persons who need no repentance." (Lk 15: 7)
2. By believing in the Son we gain eternal life;
3. We gain assurance of life in the faith and its security;
4. We receive the Holy Spirit and become brave;
5. Our sins are forgiven and we are filled with grace;
6. We become holy and worthy of going to heaven;
7. We become hopeful of our resurrection and ascension;
8. We are counted as God's children. Our relationship with him become stronger and deeper;
9. We accept Jesus Christ fully as our saviour;
10. As free persons we receive peace and joy.

But we must always remember that in order to be redeemed we have to have deep faith, hope and endurance. Redemption is an ongoing process. We must always be conscious in the path of redemption. We have to lead a holy life inspired by the Holy Spirit.

Prophecy about the coming of the Redeemer

The humankind has been waiting for the redeemer for a very long time. The prophets in the Old Testament prophesied about this. In the book of Isaiah it is written: "The people who walked in darkness have seen a light; those who dwelt in a land of deep kindness, on them has light shone.... For the yoke of his burden, and the staff for his shoulder, the rod of his oppressor, you have broken as on the day of Midian....For to us a Child is born, to us a son is given; and the government shall be upon his shoulder, and his name shall be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace." (Is 9:1, 3, 5)

In the New Testament we hear from John the Baptist: "I baptize you with water for repentance, but he who is coming after me is mightier than I, whose sandals I am not worthy to carry. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire." (Matt 3:11)

Significance of Redemption

The most significant aspect of redemption is that God loves us unconditionally. He could have given ultimate punishment to Adam and Eve after their sin in Eden. The door to heaven, he could have shut for us forever. But he did not do it, rather he promised to redeem mankind. At the right time he sent his Son and redeemed us. His only Son suffered enormously, died on the cross and by conquering death redeemed mankind from sin and from the devil. He gave us the right to call God our Father. Through this we experienced God's love for us.

What we have learned

The door to heaven was shut down because of the sins of our forefathers. But God sent his only son and redeemed us from the slavery of sin. The coming of the redeemer was prophesied by the prophets. We have now received redemption. We became free of the devil.

Planned work

Share in the small group your feeling about freedom or redemption in real life.

Chapter Eight

JESUS THE REDEEMER

All humankind has been waiting for a redeemer for a long time. For God had said through the prophets that he will send a redeemer to save the world. At the right time Jesus Christ the redeemer was born. He was born in manger like a poor man. He died on the cross after undergoing endless suffering. But his death was not the end; he was raised to life on the third day. By conquering death he redeemed the humankind from the bondage of sin.

Suffering of Jesus

Listening to the new words of Jesus and witnessing his life and miracles, innumerable people were attracted to him. Seeing this, the Jewish religious leaders and pharisees were indignant on him. They started plotting against him to kill him. They were waiting for the opportunity. Finally, one of Jesus' closest disciples, Judas (Judah) handed Jesus over to the enemies in exchange for thirty silver coins. But Jesus knew everything. Before his death, he arranged a banquet for his disciples. After the meal he came to the garden of Gethsemane. Reaching the garden he told his disciples, "While you wait here, I will go to pray." He took with him Peter, James and John. At this time he grew very anxious. He told them, My soul overwhelmed with sorrow to the point of death. You wait here and keep awake." Then he fell to the ground to pray. Then he said, "Father! Everything is possible for you. Take this cup away from me. Yet, not what I want, but you will be done."

On his return, he found the disciples sleeping. He said to Peter, "Simon, are you sleeping? You could not even keep awake an hour with me? Keep awake and pray so that you do not fall into temptation. You have enthusiasm, but human beings, made of flesh and blood, are very weak!" Then he went back to the place and prayed. And then again he returned and saw the disciples sleeping for their eye-lids were heavy. They did not know what to answer him. When he came back the third time, he told them,

"You are still sleeping, still taking rest! No, it is enough. The time has come. Now the Son of Man is going to be handed over to the enemies. As per earlier plan Judas came and kissed Jesus and the enemies arrested him. Jesus was judged in front of the court. Finally they condemned him to death. Jesus silently endured all the torture and tyranny".(Mk14:32-42).

Jesus' agony and death

At the judgment of Pilate, Jesus' punishment was death on the cross. The enemies put a heavy cross on the shoulder of Jesus. On his head, they put a crown of thorn. They tortured him in various ways. They hit him on the head crowned with thorn, spit on him, rebuked him with foul language, slapped him, ridiculed and insulted him by saying 'king of Jews'. In this way they took him to the mount of Calvary. Jesus fell on the ground three times due to the pain they inflicted. They pulled him up and forced him to carry the cross. Blood flowed from his body. After suffering enormously Jesus finally reached Calvary. There they crucified him in between two thieves. After enduring unbearable pain Jesus for three hours, he died on the cross.

Why did innocent Jesus die this way? To keep the promise of God and to fulfill the will of the Father, Jesus came into this world. In order to redeem the humankind from sin and from the hands of Satan, Jesus offered himself to death on the cross. After his death on the cross, he was brought down and buried. There was a prominent man named Joseph of Arimathea. He brought Jesus down from the cross and wrapped him with fine linen. And he laid him in a tomb which had been hewn out of the rock and rolled a stone against the door of the tomb.

Resurrection of Jesus

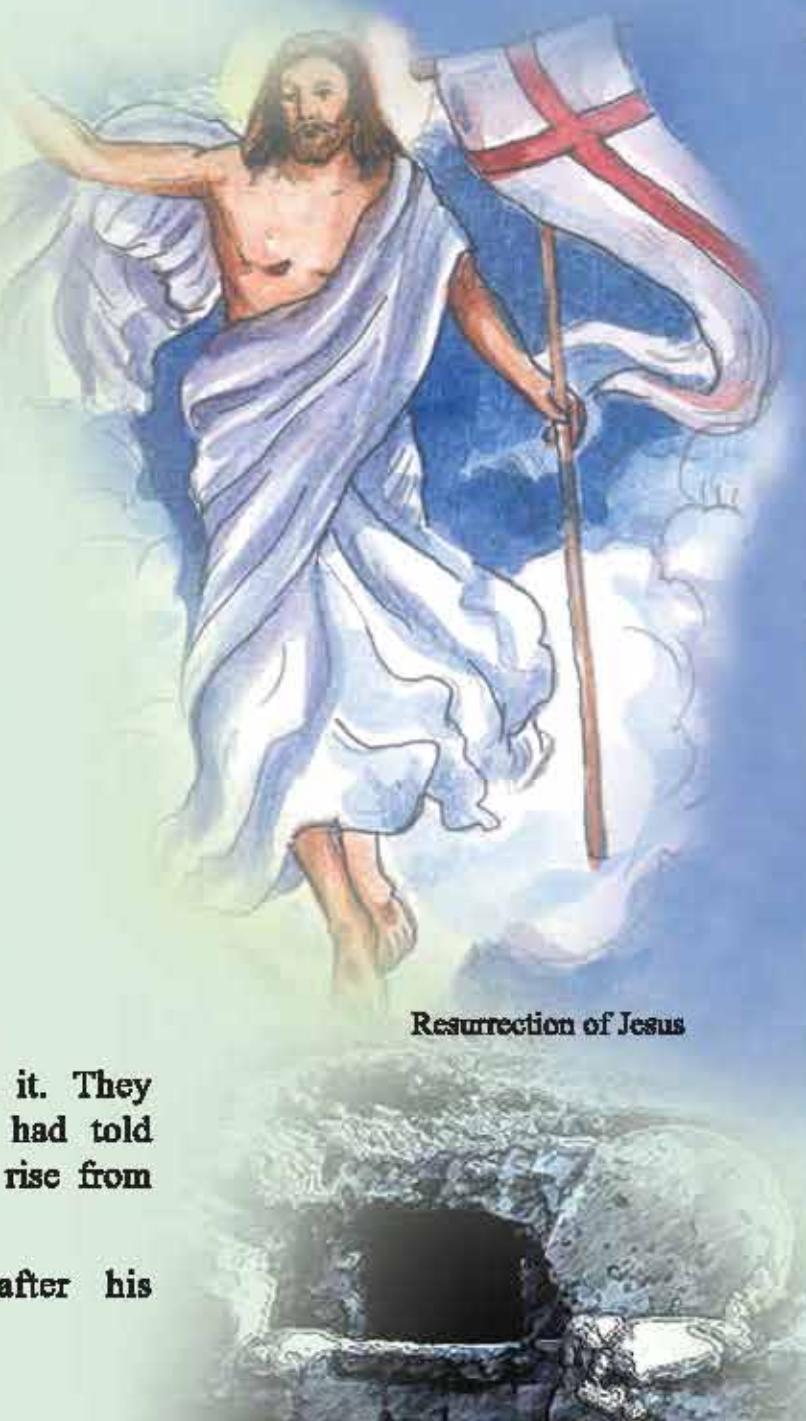

Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James and Salome knew where Jesus was buried. To anoint Jesus with spices they came to the grave on a Sunday morning before the sun rose. They were saying how they will move the heavy stone from the grave. But they looked at the grave they saw the stone had already been moved.

Going inside the tomb they saw a tall young man dressed in white sitting on the right side of the tomb. They were afraid. But he told them, "Don't be afraid; you are looking for Jesus of Nazareth, the one who was crucified! He is not here, he has been raised. See, here is where he was buried. Now, go and tell his disciples, and especially Peter: 'He is going to Galilee before you. You will see him there, just as he told you!'" Then they ran to the disciples and told them:

'they have taken Jesus away from the tomb, and we do not know where they kept him.' Then Peter and John ran to the tomb. They also saw the tomb, but not Jesus in it. They remembered what Jesus had told them before that he will rise from death.

On Sunday morning after his

resurrection Jesus first appeared to Mary Magdalene. Mary gave this news to the disciples. Later on Jesus also appeared to several other disciples. One time he appeared before two disciples who were traveling to Emmaus. At another time the disciples were inside a locked room. He came there in the middle of all and told, ‘peace be with you.’ Saying this he blew on them and told, ‘receive the Holy Spirit. The sins of one you forgive will be forgiven. Sins of those you do not forgive will not be forgiven. In this way he appeared to his disciples several times. By resurrecting from death Jesus conquered over death and the power of Satan. He fulfilled all God’s plan. He became the redeemer of humankind.

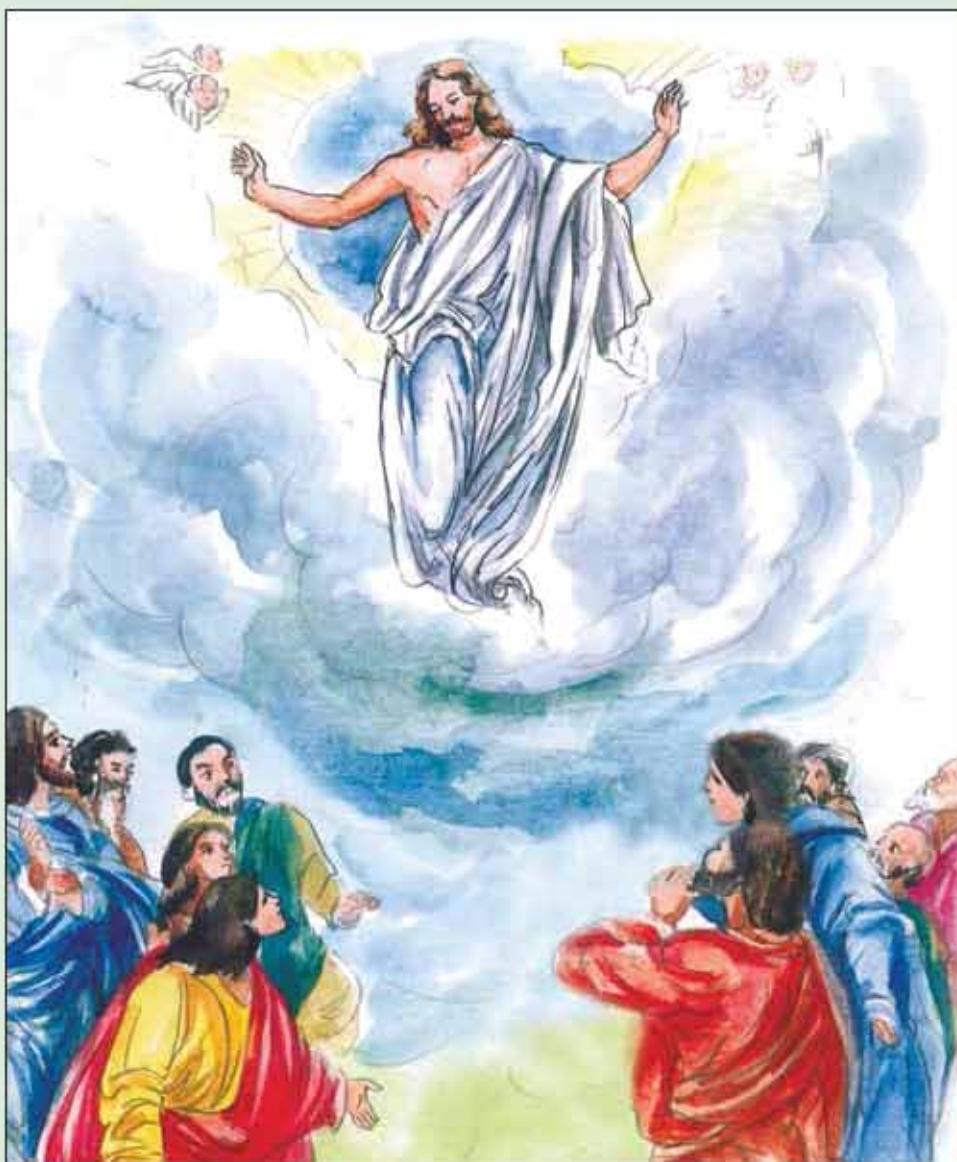

Ascension of Jesus

After his resurrection Jesus was in the world for forty days. In this time he appeared to his disciples at different places. He gave them many instructions. Especially, he promised to send the Holy Spirit to them. One day Jesus told his disciples to go to mountain in Galilee. The disciples went there. They fell prostrate to greet him. Then Jesus came to them and said: “All authority has been given to me in heaven and on earth. Go, therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Teaching them to observe all things that I have commanded you: and do, I am with you always, even to the end of the age” (Matt 28: 18-20). Saying this he raised his hands and blessed them. With the blessing he departed from them. A cloud carried him over and he ascended into heaven. His disciples worshiped him and returned to Jerusalem happily. There they waited for the Holy Spirit.

Risen Christ is our eternal friend

By his resurrection Jesus lives with us always. But his body is not like before. This body is now a glorified body. There times come in our life when we experience pain and death like Jesus. And then later on we experience his resurrection. When we work hard at our studies or do such other things, we experience suffering and death like Jesus.

Ascension of Jesus and disciples

But when we become successful, we feel that Jesus is with us. Besides, when we overcome temptation, we see the resurrection of Jesus in our life. When after we do something for someone with great pain and feel joy, resurrected Jesus lives in us. Like this, even though Jesus has been raised to heaven, he lives with us always.

What we have learned

Jesus came into this world to redeem us. He suffered pain in the garden of Gethsemane; suffered unbearable pain and he died; he resurrected on the third day. He appeared to his disciples many times. After this he ascended into heaven. The resurrected Christ lives with us always.

Chapter Nine

HOLY SPIRIT

Before his Ascension, Jesus promised his disciples that when he goes to heaven he will send a helper. He told them, until the helper comes, the disciples should not leave the town they were in. The Holy Spirit descended upon the disciples on the day of Pentecost. We heard about this before. We have also learned about the coming of the Holy Spirit in us at Baptism. At Confirmation, the Holy Spirit renewed his coming in us. The Holy Spirit lives within us and guides us always. The Gifts with which the Holy Spirit comes in us helps us to become mature Christians. Now we have to understand better the meaning of the inspiration of the Holy Spirit. We always have to try to live not as the needs of our flesh or according to our own desires, but according to the inspiration of the Holy Spirit. Only then we would be able to grow as happy persons.

Living according to the inspiration of the Holy Spirit

The meaning of living according to the inspiration of the Holy Spirit is to

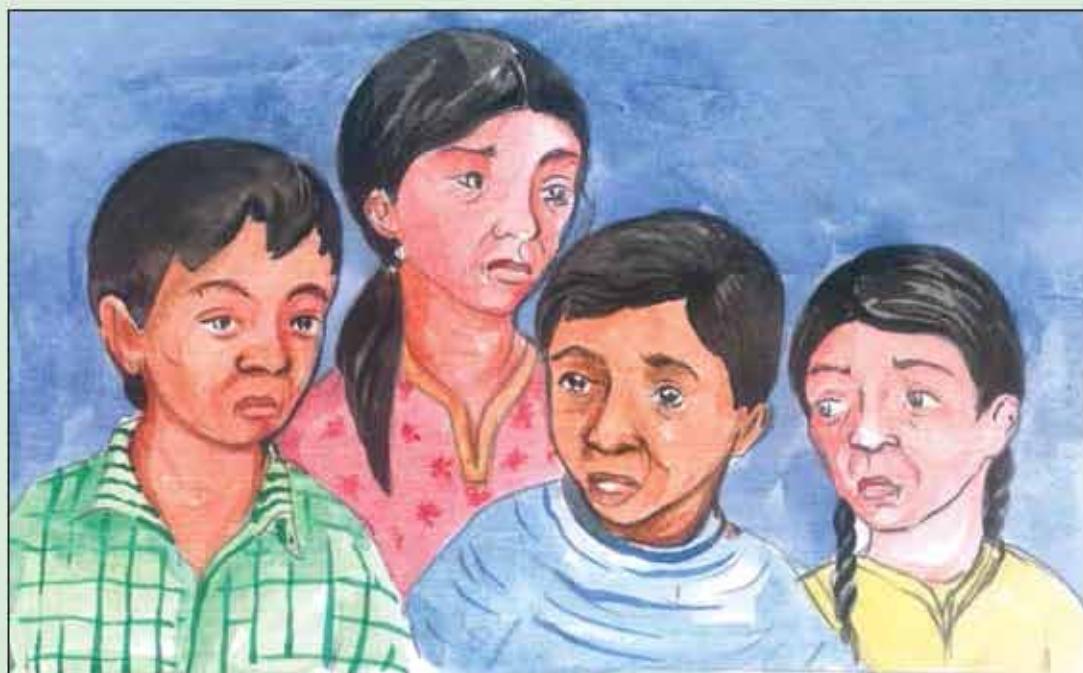

Happy are those who led by the Holy Spirit live as the Holy Spirit wants us to live. Those who live in this way, in them we find love, joy, peace, forbearance, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control.

The Holy Spirit guides us in the path of Jesus. That is why Jesus sent this helper so that he can remind us what Jesus had told us. Here there is no place for bodily desire. Those who live in accordance with the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, they are not influenced by sin.

Living according to the desires of the flesh

St. Paul tells of the living according to the desires of the flesh as a lower nature. This means to live as what the flesh wants. He showed us several aspects of this living according to the ones flesh such as sexual immorality, impurity, debauchery, idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, discord, jealousy, rage, selfishness, dissensions, factions, envy, etc. We can easily understand that the lower nature or the desires of the flesh leads us towards sin. This is bad for all of us.

Who are living according to the desires of the flesh are unhappy

Difference between the inspiration of Holy Spirit and the desires of the flesh

From the above discussion it is clear to us that our lower nature or the desires of the flesh leads us to sinfulness. But living according to the inspiration of the Holy Spirit helps us to remain in the path of Jesus. These two are made clear in the following chart.

Inspiration of the Holy Spirit	Desires of the flesh (Lower nature)
love, joy, peace, forbearance, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control .	sexual immorality, impurity, debauchery, idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, discord, jealousy, rage, selfishness, dissensions, factions, envy, etc.
leads us to God's ways .	leads us to devil's ways.
Holy Spirit gives us life .	flesh brings us death.
Holy Spirit makes us happy.	flesh destroys our happiness.
peace and harmony exist in family, society, nation and Church .	wickedness and chaos exist in family, society, nation and Church.
God is happy.	Devil is unhappy.

Ways to live in the Holy Spirit

Path guided by the Holy Spirit is the path of truth. Path of the Holy Spirit is the path of Jesus. We can live according to the inspiration of the Holy Spirit by doing the following:

1. Take decision to live according to the inspiration of the Holy Spirit;
2. Accept the will of God with open mind;
3. Read the Bible everyday and follow the inspiration it gives;
4. Attending the Eucharist and try to put in practice the strength, courage, and inspiration received from it;

5. Listen to the advice of the spiritual directors, pray yourself and follow the inspiration of the Holy Spirit for taking right decisions;
6. After completing every task, ask the Holy Spirit during prayer how the task was done according to his inspiration; if any weakness is found, ask the Spirit how that can be removed in the future and listen to what he says about it;
7. Invoke the Holy Spirit before and after every task, thank him for the success and seek his forgiveness for the failures;
8. Advise others to follow the instructions of the Holy Spirit.

Lord Jesus gave us the helper so that we can be guided in the right path. So, we will keep our minds and hearts open to his guidance. We will accept him as the leader of our lives.

What we have learned

Holy Spirit shows us the path of Jesus. Following him we gain eternal life. But flesh leads us to death. Our aim is to follow the inspiration of the Holy Spirit.

Chapter Ten

MISSION OF THE CHURCH

Jesus was sent into this world by his father for the salvation of humankind. He gave the ultimate proof of God's love for humanity. He sent his own disciples to the whole world to continue his mission. The Church looks at proclamation of the word of salvation and mission as one. Works of people are more important than their words. Whatever Church preaches, it also practices. This mission of the Church is a reflection of Christ's intention. In this chapter we will discuss and inform all about the meaning of Church's mission, special apostolates or works of service, and how one can participate in these works.

Meaning of Church's Mission

Jesus at the time of sending his apostles to mission says: "Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Teaching them to observe all things that I have commanded you; and do, I am with you always, even to the end of the age. Amen" (Matt. 28: 19-20). After saying these words, He sent his disciples to fulfill his mission. Sent by the Lord, the disciples have to also be like the Lord. They certainly remembered his words. Jesus said of himself. "For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life a ransom for many" (Mk. 10: 45).

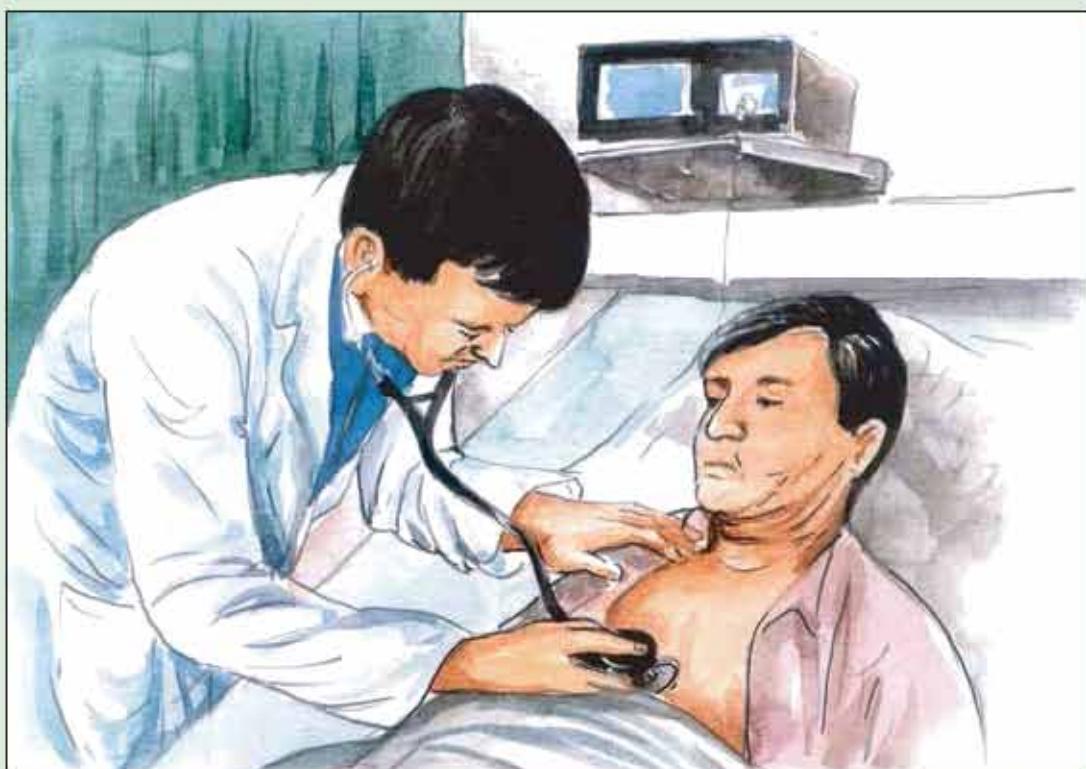

So, the mission is not as easy we might think it is. Lord gave himself fully to this mission. Being disciples of such Lord, they cannot choose to live a comfortable life or be served by others. If they do so, they cannot be true disciples of the Lord. Before sending them to mission, Jesus told his disciples: "You did not choose me, but I chose you and appointed you that you should go and bear fruit, and that your fruit should remain, that whatever you ask the Father in my name He may give you" (Jn. 15: 16-17).

Church's fundamental Missions

Following are the fundamental missions of the Church:

Education: One of the fundamental missions of the Church is education. Only through education can people be made self-reliant. The Church understood this very well.

Health care: The role of the Church in healing physical, mental and spiritual health of people has been very strong from the very outset. Jesus healed the sick himself and gave powers to his disciples to do the same.

Health Care

Vocational education: Those young people who cannot continue with their academic studies, the Church arranges for vocational training from them. Through this education they can be financially solvent in the future.

Service to the poor: The Church serves the distressed and helpless people. Many non-governmental agencies and religious congregations have made remarkable contributions in this regard. One of the names that can be mentioned is the organization Mother Teresa has established. The Church is ever ready to serve the poor, destitute, and helpless.

Empowering of women: Education, leadership and empowerment of women are very important factors for the development of the Church and of the country. The Church has always given priority over these matters and played an important role in this matter.

Poverty alleviation: The Church gives utmost importance to removing poverty from families and society for their financial emancipation. Many NGOs initiated by the Church and other individuals have made a lot of contribution in this regard.

Family welfare: Family is a basic Church or a home Church. This is the center of society. Giving adequate formation to families is special duty of the Church. The Church does it well. The Church takes special care for preparation of marriages and welfare of families.

Children welfare: Children are the future of the country and the Church. If the children are raised well, the nation will prosper. For the children, the Church has many children welfare associations. Through these associations, the Church takes various steps their development.

Youth formation: The youth are the Church's future hope of possibilities. The contribution of the Church in the formation of youth is beyond comprehension. The Church always tries to devote its resources to form the youth by organizing formation-training programs and seminars.

Furthermore, the Church offers many other services according to the need of the times. Through these works, the members of the Church always remember that Jesus is ever present with them and desires that they take part in these works on his behalf.

Participation in the mission

The above mentioned mission works are done by the Church with the participation of its people. Our taking part in these works as much as possible is very essential.

What we have learned

Jesus Christ was sent by his Father. He sent his disciples. He sends us today. The Church does its mission work this way. We all have to take part in this work.

Planned work

Share in the group the kind of mission works the Church do today.

Chapter Eleven

SACRAMENTS

We got some idea about Sacraments in the previous classes. In classes two and three we memorized the names of seven Sacraments. We learned about the Sacrament of Initiation (Baptism) more elaborately in class three. In class four we learned many things about Reconciliation (Confession), Confirmation and Eucharist. At this stage we will know in details the Sacraments of Anointing, Ordination and Marriage.

Sacrament of Anointing

Church has special concern, prayer, support, love and care for the sick. For this special concern, the Church established this Sacrament. Through this Sacrament the sick receive God's grace and blessing. They get strength and consolation. Above all, through this Sacrament the sick can receive healing. This Sacrament is also known the Sacrament of Last Rights or Sacrament of Healing.

Anointing Ceremony

The sick person is anointed on the forehead and on the hand by anointed oil and this prayer is said: "Receive the Holy Spirit with this stamping." Christ is healer. He took care of the sick and healed them. He used different signs and symbols to heal people such as saliva, placing of hands, clay and followed by washing with water, etc. With this symbols Jesus healed the sick. He gave this responsibility on the Churchs he established. The Church of Christ uses its own customs that are found in the letter of St. Jacob. St. Jacob says, "Those among you who are sick, let him call upon the elders (priests); they will anoint oil on him and pray for his healing in the name of the Lord. The Lord will heal him; and if he committed any sin, they will be forgiven" (Jacob 5: 14-15). Oil is a symbol of affluence and happiness. Before and after taking bath people purify themselves. Children are anointed oil before give them bath so that they do not catch cold. Oil is the source of healing, beauty, health and strength. On the other hand, sick becomes purified and strengthened, healed and comforted spiritually with the anointing of oil.

Anointing ceremony

Anointing the sick with holy oil has been a liturgical tradition in the old days. For many centuries anointing was done to only those who were near death. For this reason this Sacrament was named "The Last Rights". But it is not only for those who are about to die. If anyone who feels very sick due to illness or old age, they can also be given this Sacrament. Before administering this Sacrament, Sacrament of Reconciliation and the Holy Eucharist can also be administered.

Owing to this Sacrament, we, with the help of the Holy Spirit, receive strength, peace and courage for severe illness or for the problems that arise due weakness of old age. The sick person is improved of the illness due to strength of the Holy Spirit by this Sacrament, and if God wishes, the person can even be healed. Furthermore, "if the person has committed any sin, it is also forgiven."

Sacrament of Ordination (Holy Order)

God formed the chosen people as a “nation of priests and a holy people”. But one of the twelve tribes of Israel, that is, the Levites, God set apart and chose them to administer liturgical celebrations of worship.

God himself is their heir. According to the Old Testament, the beginning of priesthood was performed with a special ceremony. A priest was appointed on behalf of people to build a relationship with God, so that he can offer sacrifices for the remission of sins of the people. The Holy

Sacrament of Ordination

Order was introduced to proclaim God's words and re-establish union of people with God through prayer and offering of sacrifices. Yet this Holy Order failed to bring salvation. At this the priests have to offer sacrifices many times and still they are not able to acquire full holiness. Only the sacrifice of Christ can do that. The Most High Priest and the only mediator Christ made the Church a nation, his own God and priest of the Father. All believers according to their vocations participate in priesthood of Christ's priestly, prophetic and kingly ministries through Baptism.

God sanctified Christ and sent to this world. He, through the apostles, making the Bishops their heirs, gave the same responsibilities. The Bishops based on their own rights give various responsibilities to others. The responsibilities of the Bishops are also shared by the priests under their jurisdictions so that they can become priests and that they can also fulfill their apostolic responsibilities by becoming co-workers with the Bishops. Through the Sacrament of Ordination, a priest having received special grace from God can also fulfill his responsibilities as God's representatives. First, he himself is sanctified and then he also leads others in the path of sanctification.

Sacrament of Marriage

By the Sacrament of Marriage, a man and a woman share between them their total life of participation. They receive the vocation of raising their children, the fruit of their love, and form them after the teachings of Christ. Through this Sacrament, man and woman establish a holy inseparable bond between them. We know that God created us after his own image. Thus he invites us to love one another. This is a basic and innate vocation of all people. Because God himself is love and he created humans in his own image. Since God created humans as man and woman, their mutual love is a reflection of God's infinite and everlasting love. And God invites human persons in this love. Bear fruit, increase your family, and fill the earth. In order to continue the work of creation a man and a woman receive the vocation of marriage following the appropriate, holy and religious traditions. Jesus himself said the meaning of marriage is the inseparable union of two persons that reminds us of God's plan at creation. The union that exists in the Sacrament of Marriage and its love has been instituted by God himself. Thus marriage is a holy bond. There must be appropriate preparation before reception of this Sacrament. In the marriage preparation classes, all participants must understand that it is a Sacrament. It is a life-long and eternal covenant. This can never be broken. In the Catholic faith no one can break this covenant at his/her will.

Neither a husband can divorce his wife, nor a wife her husband. It is of paramount importance to know the minds of those who will embrace the Sacrament of Marriage. If a girl or a boy is pressured by his parents for any reason to enter into this covenant, that marriage must be dismissed. So, their opinion must be taken before marriage. The exchange of opinion of two parties in a marriage is an essential element of marriage in the Church. Marriage does not exist without mutual consent.

A priest or a deacon can administer the Sacrament of Marriage. He, on behalf of the Church, receives the consent of the husband and the wife and bestows Church's blessing on them. In their life as husband and wife they must remain faithful to each other. There can be minor misunderstandings, grudges, conceits, etc. between husband and wife at times. And that is natural.

Sacrament of Marriage

But when this kind of situation arises, things should be mended as quickly as possible. The grace a couple receives from God through their marriage keeps them enlightened through their entire life. This grace keeps them going in their conjugal life.

Ways to live in this Sacrament

1. Trust Jesus Christ completely.
2. Follow the regulations of the Church.
3. Take religious instructions regularly.
4. Participate in the religious obligations and receive the Sacraments regularly
5. Lead a holy life and give up bad habits.

Chapter Twelve

RUTH

In the Old Testament we read about the lives of a number of important women. They were firm in their belief in God and led a holy life. One of these women was Ruth. Although very ordinary, but she became extraordinary. She made family life a very attractive and ideal one. Thus she has become a living person among us. Knowing the life of Ruth, we can make our personal and family life more meaningful and joyous.

The person of Ruth

The meaning of Ruth is companion or friend. Ruth was a daughter of the Moabites. Her husband was Kilion. Her father and mother in-laws were Elimelech and Naomi. She lived in Moab.

At one time a severe famine broke out in Israel. Elimelech and his wife Naomi lived in Bethlehem of the province of Judea. They had two sons. Their names were Mahlon and Kilion. Bethlehem was a poor village. For that reason, Elimelech went to the country of Moab with his wife and sons. Land of this place was plain. Crops grew better in this place than in other places. They started living here happily. Their happiness did not last very long. Suddenly Elimelech died. Naomi became a widow with two sons. Gradually Mahlon and Kilion grew older. At their proper age, the two brothers married two Moabite girls. Wife of the elder brother Mahlon was Arpa and the wife of the younger brother was Ruth. They started their lives with new hopes and dreams. Again their good days did not last. All of a sudden both the brothers died. Widow Naomi now became a childless mother. Arpa and Ruth became widows at a very young age. Bewildered Naomi now wanted to return to Moab leaving Bethlehem telling the two wives - Arpa and Ruth - of her two sons to go back to their homes and to start their lives all over again. Initially they did not want to leave Naomi.

But at the end, Arpa returned to her parents. Ruth did not want to leave Naomi at any cost.

Naomi and Ruth

Faithfulness of Ruth in family life

Naomi prepared to return to Bethlehem. She told Ruth again to return to her country. Showing Arpa, she told Ruth, "See your sister-in-law, she has returned to her own people and her own gods. You do the same." Ruth did not agree to leave Naomi alone. Ruth replied, "I will go wherever you go.

I will spend the night wherever you spend the night. Your people will be my people. Your God will be my God. I will die where you will die. Nothing but death can separate me from you." Ruth remained unwavering in her resolve. At the end, Naomi went to Bethlehem taking Ruth with her. After traveling a long distance on foot, they reached Bethlehem.

It was time for harvest in Bethlehem. For reasons of survival, Ruth went to collect grains from Naomi's relative Boaz. He was kind to Ruth. Following Naomi's instructions, Ruth did not go to any other field to collect grains. Boaz was relative of Naomi from her husband's side. Boaz married Ruth as Naomi wished and in accordance with their family customs.

A son was born to Ruth and Boaz. His name was Obed. Son of Obed was Jesse. Son of Jesse was King David. We know that Joseph, the husband of Mary, was from the lineage of David. Our saviour was called 'Son of David' because he was born in the family of David.

From the above description we come to know about the faithfulness of Ruth:

1. She had deep love and respect for her husband and mother-in-law;
2. She took care of her mother-in-law leaving everything of her own;
3. She was obedient to her mother-in-law. She did whatever her mother-in-law wanted.
4. She married Boaz to continue the family lineage;
5. Despite her own difficulties she fulfilled her family responsibilities;
6. She gave priority to family responsibilities over her own happiness.

Ruth's firm faith in God

Ruth served other gods before marrying Kilion. After marriage she came to know the One God. She had immense faith in God. Although her husband died, she did not leave God for her own happiness. Rather she told her mother-in-law: "Your God will be my God." This expresses her firm faith in God. No hardship could change her faith from God. Since she had faith in God, she could leave her own country, religion, relatives, and everything.

After getting to know the true God, Ruth remains faithful to God at all times. Like being faithful to carry out family responsibilities, she was faithful to God. There was a great plan of God for Ruth. God wanted that Ruth's life will be like a guiding star in the future forever. Although Ruth did not understand God's plan at that time, she accepted it. God will send his only son to redeem the people of the world. This son will have to be born in the family of David. Through Ruth this became possible. For we have seen that Jesus the saviour was born in race of David and Ruth was David's grandmother.

Being faithful to God

It is very important for us to be faithful to God. By doing the following tasks we can remain faithful to God like Ruth:

1. Know the life of Ruth and learn from it;
2. Remain faithful to God like Ruth;
3. Depend on God for everything like Ruth;
4. Seek God's strength to be faithful to him.

Ruth by leaving aside personal comforts remained faithful to family life with her mother-in-law. She had deep faith in God. God fulfilled His plan through Ruth.

Chapter Thirteen

NELSON MANDELA

Many of us have heard the name of Nelson Mandela. He was a great and noble man. As a political and social leader he fought for the emancipation and freedom of people all his life. Nelson Mandela was born on July 18, 1918 in the city of Transkei of South Africa. Xhosa was an African language. In this language, Mandela's name was "Rolihlahla", literal meaning of which is to pull someone down from the branch of a tree. But the deeper meaning of this name is "Troublemaker".

Mandela's father, Gadla Henry Mandela, was the chief consultant of the Thembu tribe. His mother, Noqaphi Nosekeni, was a quiet and simple woman. In Transkei, Nelson Mandela spent his childhood doing farming and tending cattle. At night, sitting by the fire, he used to listen from the elders the stories of the African heroes. When he was only nine years, his father died. After his death, Mandela lived in the house of the head of the tribe for a few years. There his favourite work was to observe the work of the head of the tribe resolve conflicts among small tribes. Doing this he expressed a desire to become a lawyer some day to prove his merit to do the same.

Nelson Mandela

After completing his studies at Methodist High School, he got admission at Fort Hare College in the town of Alice at East Cape. Following the African tradition, he along with 25 other friends, prepared himself for his circumcision. According to this tradition, without having been circumcised, one could not be heir of property and work for the tribe. This tradition was a step to become an adult from being a child. Thus with joy and happiness, he embraced this tradition to bear his new identity as an adult.

The chief presenter of the traditional ceremony said with deep sorrow that the young people have been serving the British regime in their own countries for generations because their lands were occupied by the British. For this reason, they never had the opportunity to govern their own countries. He further said that in this way the young will destroy themselves working for the British like stupid people.

Initially Mandela could not understand the meaning of these words. Slowly, after receiving education and coming face to face with bitter experiences of the African situations and persecution, he understood their meaning. Thus, he resolved that he will stand against the neglect, injustice, suffering and persecution of the British and will free his own people.

Imprisonment and success

He played an important role in the "African National Congress (ANC)." He helped in the formation of the youth wing of the ANC. Through this they stood against the injustices of the British for the first time. As result, he was arrested in 1961 for treachery and then released in 1961. He directed the ANC from 1960 to 1962. In 1962, he was again arrested for treachery and was imprisoned for five year. Again in 1964, he was put into prison for life. During 27 years long imprisonment, his attitude toward apartheid changed. Finally in 1990, President F. W. Clark lifted the embargo against ANC and freed Mandela from imprisonment.

President Nelson Mandela

Release of Nelson Mandela marked the end of apartheid in South Africa. The laws in the constitutions of the African government that created national discrimination against people, he removed them in 1991. In 1993, he was awarded the Nobel peace prize for his role in eliminating discrimination and establishing democracy. Nelson Mandela was elected the first black president of South Africa in May of 1994.

After being elected president his first task was to free the black people from economic and social bondage. By this he wanted to establish equality by restoring their dignity and helping them in their development. Besides, by removing discrimination he also wanted to build a just social and national system of governance. Nelson Mandela is still a source of inspiration for many to this day. He is a source of strength to all human rights movements in the modern world. His personality succeeded in establishing human dignity. Through this, he has become a light of hope in darkness. He is a sign of love in a world of hatred and oppression.

Nelson Mandela is a symbol of timeliness. His waking up at 4:00 am has been a life-long practice. He worked 12 hours every day and bitterly detested indiscipline. He says, "I was present at every event 15 minutes earlier and that made me a different person."

What we have learned

Despite being born in the midst of oppression and limitations, Nelson Mandela freed his nation from national discrimination. Due to his hard work, merit and endurance, the door of political, social and economic rights has been opened. Today he has become an icon to all human rights, human dignity and equal rights movements.

Reward of good works at the Last Judgment is heaven. Reward of evil deeds is hell. We have learned what we need to do to prepare ourselves for the Last Judgment.

Chapter Fourteen

THE LAST JUDGMENT

We came into this world by the will of God. We have to leave it when he wants us to do so. God has plans for us. He wants that we know his plans and follow his path. He expressed his wishes to us through the Bible. Jesus, his son, is the way we are to follow. If we follow his wishes, we will receive eternal rewards on the day of judgment.

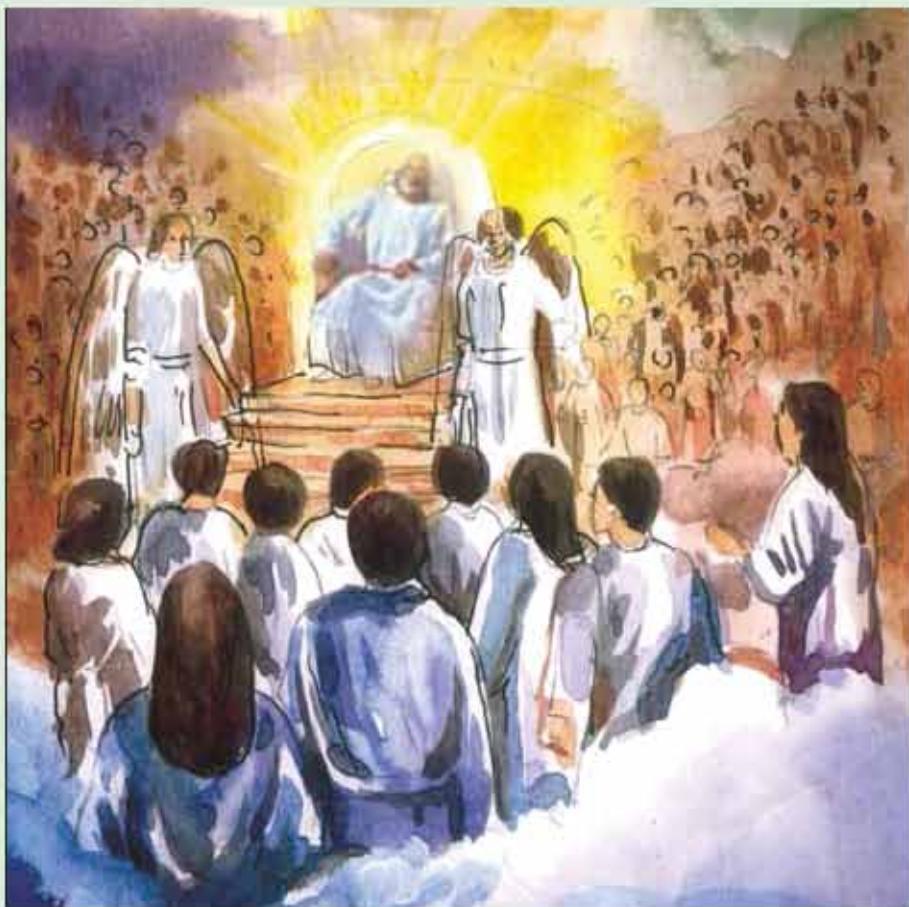

Meaning of the Last Judgment

At the end of time God will judge all people and angel. After considering the good and the bad, his pronouncement is what is known as the Last Judgment. Every individual's fate will be decided based on his judgment. On that day it will be decided who will go to heaven or to hell. In all of the four gospels, especially in Mathew's, this idea has been specifically mentioned. It was said that everybody will be resurrected on that day. At that time Christ will come to this world with the angels of heaven. He will judge all people. He will reward those worthy of reward and punish those worthy of punishment during that judgment.

Standard of the Last Judgment

God will judge all people and angel. He gave power to Jesus His son to judg. The people the way they lived and acted out their lives. Then I saw a great white throne and him who was seated on it. The earth and the havens fled from his presence, and there was no place for them. And I saw the dead, great and small, standing before the throne, and books were opened. Another book was opened which is the book of life. The dead were judged according to what they done as recorded in the books." – (Rev.11-12)

After death, all people, small and great, will have to stand before Jesus for judgment.

Last Judgment

Jesus Christ will judge us based on our brotherly love. All deeds - good or bad - are written in the book of life. According to that, people will receive either reward or punishment. In the gospel of Mathew, it is written that on the day of last judgment, the son of man, that is, Jesus Christ, will separate the people into two groups. Like the way sheep and goats are separated, people will also be separated. Those who served the poor and the despised will be compared to the sheep. They will be seated on the right, that is, on the seat of honour. But those who did not serve the poor and the despised will be compared to the goats. They will be seated on the left. Christ will praise those on the right and send them to heaven. There they will live with God in eternal peace. Those on the left, he will reproach them and send them to hell. There they will live with the devil and suffer eternally. The angels who sinned, they will also be judged on the Last Judgment day. In the letter of St. Peter, it is written: "For if God did not spare the angels who sinned, but cast them down to hell and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be reserved for judgment" (2 Peter 2: 4).

Preparation for the Last Judgment

Whether we like it or not, we have to be present for the last Judgment. No one can escape it. Therefore, we need to take preparation for it. Preparation for this starts from Baptism and it continues till the moment before our death. We can prepare ourselves by doing the following:

1. Pray in the morning after rising. Resolve to stay well all day long. Seek God's strength to lead a good life at all times.
2. Carry out your responsibilities well.
3. Try to do something good everyday such as feed the hungry, give water to the thirsty, clothe the naked, attend to the sick, etc.
4. Read at least some part of the Bible.
5. Gather in evening prayer with other family members. If all cannot be present, at least pray by yourself.
6. Examine conscience at night before going to bed. Repent and ask for God's forgiveness for any failures of sin committed during the day. Make promise to God and seek his strength so that no sins are committed in the coming days.

Jesus is our friend. He came into this world to show us the way to heaven. If we follow his path, that is, take heart his precept, we will be rewarded at the Last Judgment.

Let us sing

Whatsoever you do the least of my brothers that you do unto me (4).

When I was hungry, you gave me food,
When I was thirsty, you gave me drink.

Chapter Fifteen

TORNADO AND CYCLONE

Bangladesh is a natural disaster-prone country. Every year different natural calamities hit this country. Among them most notable are tornado and cyclone. At certain times these hit the country so badly that many people get killed by them. We shall try to understand our responsibilities as Christians during these disasters.

Tornado and Cyclone

These can take place in any part of the country. Houses, trees, crops, etc. are in a mess at the time of tornado. Houses are totally devastated. Many people are injured and killed by this. Cyclones usually take place in the southern coastal parts of the country. During cyclones, sea water level rises sharply. Strong wind and water hit land at tremendous force. Houses, trees, and crops are totally destroyed. Many people die of drowning the salty sea water. We shall think how we can come to the assistance of the people during these tumultuous times.

Things to do before a cyclone

1. Collect some emergency phone numbers that can be contacted easily.
2. Select a well-built house, the one that does not have much chance of being blown away by wind, and take shelter there.
3. Collect some important things such as first aid materials, a torch light, a small radio with extra batteries, a candle, a match-box, certificates and documents, and some dry food.
4. Plan to move to a secured place, constantly listen to the television or radio for news and to follow government instructions.
5. Check if the roof of the house is securely fastened with the pillars.
6. Keep alert of loose tins or other items outside the house because those can be blown by wind and cause injury.
7. Arrange ahead of time for placing cattle and chickens and ducks.
8. Store enough water in case of shortage of supply later.
9. Keep enough cash money.
10. Shut down electric and gas lines.
11. After becoming sure that the cyclone has hit, go to the secured place with all family members.

Things to do during a cyclone

1. Ensure that all members of the family are inside the house.
2. Keep all important things within reach.
3. Continue listening to radio or television instructions.
4. Pray to God that he keeps all safe.

Christian teachings on what to do during a disaster

It is true that human persons have no hands at natural disasters. But there is no restriction to come to aid of disaster stricken people. Rather it is instructed that people should help each other. We can remember Jesus' teaching about ones neighbour in this regard. The Samaritan, who being a foreigner helped the wounded person, was his true neighbour. If we come to help people in need during disaster, we become their neighbour. But if we do not do anything for them, we do not act as like a Christian. Here we can also bring to mind Jesus' words: when I was starving, you gave me food; when I was thirsty, you gave me water; when in need of clothing, you clothed me... So, it is a must for a Christian to be on the side of all who have no shelter, clothing, food, water, and who are sick.

Relief Distribution

Things to do after a cyclone

1. Collect relief goods and distribute them.
2. If any one dies, hold a funeral ceremony.
3. Provide treatment to the wounded.
4. Take cyclone hit people to secured place and give them food, clothing and pure water.
5. Give them mental support.

Human beings are helpless during natural disasters. It is our Christian duty to be by their side.

Chapter Sixteen

BANGLADESH CHURCH IN THE SERVICE OF THE COUNTRY AND THE NATION

In the very beginning of creation we hear the call of God to serve. After creating everything, God gives power to human beings to exercise authority over the creation, that is, to look after and take care of it. Then, we notice in the Ten Commandments given to Moses by God, the main theme is LOVE. He says, "The first of all the commandments is: 'Hear, O Israel, the Lord our God, the Lord is one. And you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your mind, and with all your strength.' And the second, like it, is this: 'You shall love your neighbour as yourself.'" (Mk. 12: 29-31).

Services rendered by the Church in Bangladesh

At the commandment of the Lord, the disciples left everything behind to serve Him. The wave in their hearts also reached Bangladesh. The Church was established in Bangladesh (the then Bengal) more than 400 years back. Since the beginning, it has been involved with various services in Bangladesh. Stories of some of those services are mentioned here below:

1. The Liberation War: In 1971, many Christians took part directly or indirectly in the war of liberation. Many became martyrs including three priests. Many ordinary people also gave their lives. The Pakistani soldiers set fire in their houses. The Bishops of Bangladesh instructed the priests to give shelter to the refugees. By giving shelter to many refugees, they helped in the victory of the war. Many also took part in the liberation war by serving the wounded freedom fighter.

2. Field of education: The Bangladesh Church gave high priority to education. Because the Church felt that in order to develop a nation, spreading the light of education was very important. Thus, they established educational institutions in many parts of the country. These institutions were established both in the cities and in the villages. There are 513 primary schools, 14 junior high schools, 48 high schools, 5 colleges, 13 technical schools, and 125 hostels in the country established by the Church. The Church is now working on establishing a university. In these Church established educational institutions, students of all religions can study. Due to the reasons below these institutions are of rather high quality:

- (1) Rules are strictly followed;
- (2) Emphasis is given to the education of the students, not to its monetary gains;
- (3) All subjects are taught well;
- (4) Education given is value-based for moral formation;
- (5) Administrators of these schools dedicate their lives for these works.
They serve God by serving their students.
- (6) Administration is run by self-sacrificing and dedicated individuals.

Due to these reasons, the Church educational institutions can give quality education to their students.

3. Healthcare: A lot of things depend on the health of a person, family, society and nation. Without sound health, neither one cannot do well in education nor in any other works. That is why Church give stresses much on the establishment of healthcare facilities. Among the many large hospitals, the more well known are: Dinajpur St. Vincent Hospital, St. Paul's Hospital of Mogla (Khulna), Fatema Hospital in Jessore, Rajshahi Christian Hospital, Mission Hospital in Natore, Malumghat Christian Hospital of Cox's Bazar, Chandraghona Christian Hospital, Parbotibpur Lame Hospital, Jalchatra Hospital and Jalchatra Leprosy Hospital of Madhupur, Dhanjuri Leporsy Hospital of Dinajpur, Baptist Church Leprosy Hospital of Faridpur, Notre Dame Nevin Hospital, Dhaka Christian Hospital, St. Mary's Mother and Child Hospital. Through this healthcare centers, Christians and Non-Christians, rich and poor, all are getting good treatment. Holy Family Hospital of Dhaka was also established by the Christian missionaries, later on handed over to Red Crescent Society.

Dispensaries: There are more than 65 dispensaries that are administered by the Christians. Many sick people are treated through these dispensaries free or at a very nominal cost. In most of these, health awareness is taught regularly.

Doctors and Nurses: According to information of 2012, more than 120 Christian doctors and 5,000 nurses are serving the nation through different hospitals and clinics.

4. Socio-economic development: Bangladesh Christian Church is also relentlessly working for the economic and social development of the people. Caritas, CCDB, Koinonia, Christian Credit Union, CULB, Christian Housing Society, Salvation Army, World Vision and many such other developing organizations are providing food, clothing, housing, medical and educational assistance to huge number of people in the country.

5. Youth development: If the youth of the country is directed in the right path, it can be said that the nation will follow the right path. For this reason, there are seven diocesan and one national youth commissions in the Church of Bangladesh. Through these commissions, young boys and girls are given various trainings and are offered opportunities for participation in different formational activities.

6. Family development: Through families, people learn the values of love, motherhood, justice, peace, compassion, generosity, etc. That is why in all of the seven dioceses and nationally family development training programs are organized every year. Through family counseling, many problematic families are being helped.

7. Human rights, Justice and Peace: Though there is much need for justice and peace in the human persons, injustices and violence often dictates their minds. Thus the justice and peace commission organizes frequent training programs and seminars to make people aware of human rights, justice and peace.

8. Treatment and rehabilitation of drug addicts: One of the biggest problems of the time is addiction. It is not only confined to the cities, but has spread across the villages as well. In order to address this problem, the Bangladesh Church has been administering two treatment and rehabilitation centers in the country. These two centers are 'BARACA' and 'APON'. These two have already gained much popularity.

Not only these, but many more services are provided through personal initiatives that are not possible to mention here. All in all, the Bangladesh Church is doing its best to build up the country and its people. Church has only one purpose: To serve God by serving people.
